Animal Magnetism

A leopard cannot change its spots. So good news for leopards... they’re back on trend!

Leopard print is not just for brassy East End barmaids and mystical Amazonian medicine men any more; no, it’s absolutely everywhere: printed onto leather jackets, designer hoodies and shirts, and silky rock ‘n’ roll scarves. Yes, a leopard’s spots are perfectly suited to every occasion; from stalking warthogs and baboons through the rainforest to hitting the swankiest bars and clubs. The always-stylish French footballer Paul Pogba has even had leopard print coloured on each side of his Mohican. Now, why did the leopard get lost? Because jungle is massive.
